

Memorial Day

Last Monday of May

This holiday is a day for remembering those men and women who died while serving in the armed forces. A memorial is something done to honor someone who has passed away.

